

Dr. Wharton Coming.

Rev. J. F. Kemper of this city, received a letter this week from Rev. Dr. Wharton, in which he suggests that the pastors of the different churches in the city, assisted by Mr. Geiger, who will arrive in Marshall Saturday, June 22, and begin the meeting Sunday, evening the 23rd, and continue through the week each night, until his arrival.

The tent for the meeting was put up Thursday on the Pate lot on East North street, just back of Fletcher's store. The meeting will be conducted Sunday night by Rev. Mr. Howell, assisted by Mr. Geiger, who is a fine singer and the different ministers will lead the meetings until the arrival of Mr. Wharton.

Rev. J. W. Howell went to Boonville this week to secure some seats that had been used in tent meetings in that city, but failed in getting them, making it necessary to have the seats made, which has been done.

Rev. Dr. Wharton is a Virginian by birth, is an old friend of Rev. J. F. Kemper and Rev. Charles E. Thomas, having married a sister of an old law friend of the latter. Mr. Wharton went into the army when a boy of 15 and was afterwards educated for the bar. He came into the Baptist church when very young, was pastor of the Lee street church at Baltimore, also of the Brantly memorial church at Baltimore for years. He concluded his work there by building a large stone tabernacle that was necessary to accommodate his large congregation.

Mr. Wharton, assisted Mr. Moody at the World's Fair and for the past 6 years has devoted his entire time to evangelistic work and two orphanages are being supported by him. He is a man of fine personal appearance, his style of preaching is conversational and has been always successful wherever he has labored. He recently closed a most successful meeting in Worcester, Massachusetts, and his visit to this city is looked forward to with much interest. God's people have been meeting together in prayer that the Holy spirit may descend with great power upon the town of Marshall.

Ladies' Prayer Meeting.

The ladies of the different churches in the city have been holding afternoon prayer meetings at the M. E. church, South, for ten days. Each service has been fairly well attended.

Friday afternoon, June 14th, the meeting was led by Mrs. A. J.

Haines of the Presbyterian church, who made an excellent talk, which was both helpful and interesting. Mrs. Haines is one of the finest Bible students in the city and her points were well rounded. At this meeting it was decided to have the meetings twice a week instead of every day.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Florence Cason of the Baptist church was the leader. She took her text from Philippians 2, her subject being "Practical Work." Each lady present felt encouraged to greater efforts and realized that as there was too much pride and a lack of love in the church at Phillips, so was it in the church to-day.

Short talks were made by Mesdames Mary Huston, W. T. McClure and Andrew Olson.

Thursday afternoon, considering the intense heat, the meeting was well attended and was led by Mrs. Ed Merry of the Christian church. Her remarks were to the point and much enjoyed by the audience.

M. W. A. Memorial Service.

The memorial service held Sunday morning by the members of Cedar Camp No. 2091, Modern Woodmen of America, at the First M. E. church, was well attended.

The members met at Castle Hall at ten o'clock and marched to the church where they entered the church, marching silently down the center aisle where the symbols of the order were laid at the altar.

The following program was given:

Organ prelude by Miss Josephine Jackson.

Hymn—"Morning Worship."

Invocation.

Hymn—"America."

Scriptural Reading—1st Psalm and John 10, 1-16.

Hymn—"Calvary," solo by Mrs. Lehr.

Sermon—Rev. Lehr took for his text, "I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly." The sermon was appropriate for the occasion and was thoroughly enjoyed.

Hymn—"Nearer My God to Thee."

Prayer.

Benediction.

At the hall a resolution of thanks was unanimously voted to Rev. Albert M. Lehr for his able sermon.

At the close of the services at the church a committee visited Ridge Park, where the graves of their departed members were covered with fresh cut flowers, bright emblems of love and esteem.

M. K. Farmer's House Entered.

Friday night when Mrs. M. K. Farmer was awakened at the hour of midnight by her little son, who had a coughing spell, she discovered a man standing in the alcove between the two rooms. He made his escape through the window as she turned on the light. The oldest son of Mr. Farmer says he saw the man, who was a white man, very large, possibly weighing 180 pounds. He had gained an entrance to the house through the door, which was left unfastened, no doubt with the intention of robbery.

Mr. Farmer had returned that night from Odessa, and had considerable money about the house, but fortunately the coughing of the child awakened them before the man had time to do any harm.

Owen-Lewis.

The wedding of Mr. John W. Owens, of Miami, and Mrs. Nancy C. Lewis, of this city, took place Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at the parsonage of the M. E. church, South. Rev. J. W. Howell performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Owen will live on the Emison farm west of town.

One of St. Saviour's Graduates.

Miss Minnie Gill, daughter of Thomas Gill of the New York store, was one of the graduates this week at St. Saviour's Academy. The young lady acquitted herself with credit and has been highly complimented. She received a number of handsome presents, among which was a gold watch and chain from her grandfather, Mr. Thomas Howe, of Sun Prairie, Wisconsin, also a diamond pin and handsome ring from relatives in St. Louis.

Stockholders' Meeting.

The stock subscribers of the Marshall Creamery met at the city hall Saturday last for the purpose of organization. F. M. Lail was elected chairman and James H. Boyer secretary. The following were elected as directors: F. M. Lail, J. H. Boyer, J. M. Terrell, T. C. Jones and Charles W. Downs.

A committee on by-laws was appointed as follows: J. H. Boyer, R. B. Ruff, R. E. Holloway and Charles W. Downs.

The board of directors were authorized to secure the necessary grounds and after a sufficient amount of stock has been sold the buildings will be erected at once.

The meeting adjourned until Saturday, June 29, at 2 o'clock.

Accident Near the F. M. I.

E. R. Page while driving over the grounds at the F. M. I. Monday met with an accident that might have proved serious. A smoothing harrow had been left in the grass and was covered with dirt and grass, entirely concealing it. The hind wheel of the buggy caught in the harrow, turning the buggy over and throwing Mr. Page out, but fortunately he escaped with only a few bruises. The buggy was broken and the horse ran some distance before he was caught.

City Water Case.

Judge Davis has declined to sit in the case City of Marshall vs. Marshall Water Co. and Judge J. W. Alexander, of Gallatin, Mo., will try the cause. The case is set for Tuesday, September 3, 1901.

Band Concert.

The Marshall Concert band gave the following program Thursday evening on the west side of the square:

March—"Under Fire," Albert Russell, Jr.
"Tell It To Me," W. H. Mackie.
Waltz—"Twilight Hour," Ripley.
March—"Margery," Daniels.
"Uncle Jake," Barnard.
"In the Shadow of the Pines," Long.
March—"Flying Squadron," Seanton.
Overture—"Orion," Lasey.
March—"The Great Captain," Seanton.
Serenade—"Pleasant Dreams," Risley.
Finale—"Dixie."

The concerts given by this band are exceptionally good and have become quite a feature in our city and for two hours every Thursday the square is lined with people and vehicles.

Camping Out.

The Abney family of this city are enjoying a family reunion this week and are camping on the hill on the other side of Salt Fork bridge where the shade is fine and good water plentiful and the surroundings especially desirable for camp life.

The party is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Dite Abney, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Abney, of Kansas City, Clell Harrison, wife and son, Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Abney and daughter, Miss Vallie.

Leonard Harrison, who enjoys fishing immensely for a boy of his age, was rewarded this week by catching a frog with a tail three inches long, that was quite a curiosity.
